CURED OF ASTHMA

"I tried a great many remedies, but my asthma steadily grew worse until I had to sleep in a reclining chair for months to get any rest. I at last (without any faith in good results) concluded to try Hyomei.
After using two or three days I could go to bed and sleep as well as ever. I continued using Hyomei until I had used up nearly two bottles and have never had any trouble from asthma since. It was five years ago that the cure was made." Respectfully yours, W. P. DeWolf, Connant, Ohio, R. F. D. No. 4, July 31, 1910.

Breaths Hyomei (pronounced Hye-o-mey) is guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy to cure asthma, catarrh, sore throat, or money back. Complete outfit including inhaler, $1.00. Extra bottles 50 cents.

A CARD.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Green's Warranted Syrup of Tar, if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory, or money refunded.

Being a resident at the town farm in St. Johnsbury, it was with pleasure that Patrick Barrett received word that a bounty of $400 and a pension of $15 a month was awaiting him for service in the Civil War. Mr. Barrett enlisted from Charleston in Co. D, Third Vermont, and the bounty comes to him as a native of Canada.

W. A. Mayer of Rutland has invented a bottle which he claims cannot be refilled. Non-refillable bottles have been in demand for years, and many companies putting forth standard products experience a yearly loss through individuals who with a spurious quality of goods, refill bottles bearing the advertised name. Mr. Mayer will give no information as to the method in which his bottle operates, but says that he has been offered several thousand dollars for it.

Two Bennington boys, George Burt and Wilfred Langlois, aged respectively 15 and 13 years, have been sentenced to the industrial school at Vergennes on the charge of larceny. Young Burt stole several pairs of skates, traps, etc., from a Pownall store several months ago and went to Troy. He had just been brought back. The Langlois boy was caught attempting to rob a box in one of the Bennington schools, which was used to collect a fund for the purchase of books. When confronted by officers, he acknowledged that he was the one who robbed the same box some time ago, getting two dollars. After the second attempt, his father wanted the boy sent to the reform school.

About the State

The town debt of Swanton was reduced $8,000 last year.

For the first time since casting his first vote 56 years ago, A. D. Briggs of Fayston, who is ill of the grippe, was unable to attend town meeting.

Miss Gertrude Stewart, a graduate of the Rutland high school, class of 1899, has returned from Hankow, China, where she has been for five years as a missionary. She expects to be detailed for lecture work in Vermont.

While Thomas Bowen of Shrewsbury was driving down a mountain side on Tuesday, on a sled loaded with logs, the load slipped over a small embankment and was overturned. Mr. Bowen being pinned under some of the logs. His injuries were principally confined to a severe fracture of the left leg.

Being a resident at the town farm in St. Johnsbury, it was with pleasure that Patrick Barrett received word that a bounty of $400 and a pension of $15 a month was awaiting him for service in the Civil War. Mr. Barrett enlisted from Charleston in Co. D, Third Vermont, and the bounty comes to him as a native of Canada.

Tortures of Piles

It is Unnecessary to Suffer This Terrible Trouble.

Keen torture is the everyday lot of the sufferer from piles.

And yet that suffering is needless. Burt H. Wells, Barre, Vt., and druggists everywhere, will sell you Hem-Roid and later return your money if it fails.

We have sold Hem-Roid that way for two or three years and refunds asked for have been less than three per cent. We therefore recommend it with confidence.

Hem-Roid is an internal remedy, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonard, $1.00 for large bottle. Dr. Leonard Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for booklet.
